MEET BIG JOURNEY—A real thrill is in store for the young and old of England when these seven Indians from the Marley Reserve, west of Calgary, arrive in Great Britain aboard the Empress of France. They will perform for a circus in England for a period of up to two years. In this picture, taken aboard their special C.P.R. railroad car in Montreal, are left to right, front row: Rose Bear's Paw, 12; Elsie Rider, 4; Harold Bear's Paw, 6; Mrs. Elsie Rider and Mrs. Handome Bear's Paw. In the back row are Handome Bear's Paw; Elsie Rider, and cowboy Gerry Campbell from Banff, Alta., who is in charge of the group.

PAY RESPECTS TO GEN. DE TASSIGNY—Paying their last respects to Gen. Jean-Louis de Tassigny are Sir Oliver Franks, British Ambassador to Paris, and Dr. Vanier, Canadian ambassador, at the General's home in Paris. Gen. Tassigny, son of France's most able military son, and former commander in French Indo-China, died after a brief illness.—Central Press Canadian.

FOUR POINTS OF TRUMAN-CHURCHILL AGREEMENT—Four points of agreement between President Truman and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill, resulting from their Washington talks, are indicated on map above. They also agreed on mutual sharing of vital materials such as U.S. steel and British tin and aluminum, which the United States needs. U.S. Congress has demanded that President Truman make public any agreement with Churchill arrived at during the visit to Washington.—Central Press Canadian.

IT WON'T BE THE SAME AGAIN—A view of the spectacular fire that raged in Atlantic City, N.J., destroyed about 30 small hotels known to thousands of Canadian travellers and vacationers. It was estimated that at least $2,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed.

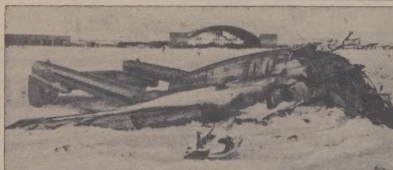

MERCY FLIGHT—Jennie, a 15-year-old Eskimo girl from Port Chino, N.W.T., is shown shortly after she arrived in Montreal on an R.C.A.F. Dakota of Tactical Air Group, Communications and Rescue, of Edmonton, Alta. Jennie is suffering from tuberculosis of the hip and was brought there for treatment at the Sacred Heart Hospital at Chaguanawa.

PAN JONG YUNG, 19-year-old Korean interpreter with the 26th Canadian Brigade in Korea, says farewell to Hon. Brooke Claxton, Canadian Defence Minister, as they leave their plane at Ottawa. The Korean youth arrived in the Metropolis recently and will attend college under the sponsorship of The Standard, Montreal.

BIG MOMENT FOR BARBARA—Six-year-old Barbara McLellan shipped school in Ottawa recently for a look at Prime Minister Winston Churchill and got a handshake to boot. Here she is with hand outstretched just after the big moment when Mr. Churchill paused to grasp her hand as he entered the East Wing of the Parliament Buildings.

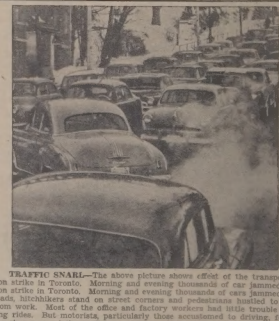

MONTREAL PILOT DIES IN VAMPIRE JET PLANE CRASH—Wreckage of the R.C.A.F. Vampyre jet fighter in which Flying Officer Jean Rivest of Montreal died lies in a field at St. Robert, Que. The plane crashed just after a takeoff.—Central Press Canadian.

SAYS BRITAIN WILL SOLVE FINANCIAL PROBLEMS—At a state dinner in Ottawa, Prime Minister Winston Churchill's words, broadcast across Canada, notified listeners that Britain intended to get out of her financial difficulties without direct aid, and that she would support any broadening of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation in military and economic aspects. He was cheered frequently as he spoke.—Central Press Canadian.

TRAFFIC SNARL—The above picture shows effect of the transportation strike in Toronto. Morning and evening thousands of cars jammed the main thoroughfares in Toronto. Most of the office and factory workers had little trouble getting the slow pace of the traffic a nuisance.—Central Press Canadian.

CHURCHILL'S GIFT TO TRUMAN—This model of the Mayflower was presented by Prime Minister Churchill to President Truman in Washington. The model has been made out of the wood of the original vessel that carried the Pilgrim Fathers to Massachusetts bay. The wood was taken from a barn, built of the Mayflower's timbers, which stands near London, England.—Central Press Canadian.
